

- III
- I had several experiences of celebrating the Eucharist with special friends
That the words of the Mass came alive from beginning to end.
It was like seeing the experience through God's eyes.
 - Dying became attractive and I could relate to St. Paul and St. Ignatius of Antioch:
with St. Paul that I was divided in my longing (to go to God or stay) with St. Ignatius that I didn't want anyone to interfere
 - I could feel the unity with others and was greatly encouraged by being thanked for embracing Jesus Forsaken and being reminded of the privilege (that the Father had given me in carrying His Son Jesus Forsaken in my body. In March, 2006, God the Father spoke to Fr. Ed and said, "Ed, thank you for carrying My Son Jesus Forsaken in your body." As Fr. Ed shared this with me (Judy), we both cried. It was at a time, when Fr. Ed was in the high altitudes of Colorado, with about 35+ lbs. of extra stomach fluid and he became aware of what later would be a blood clot in his left leg.)

IV. The Future

I seem to be experiencing a healing and a whole new attitude toward Who Jesus Forsaken is for me now.

I relate to Chiara (foundress of the Focolare Movement) coming back from the Paradise '49 experience, knowing that she has only one spouse and He is Jesus Forsaken.

I need to pray and work hard at finding my companion of Jesus Forsaken daily. He came to me in marvelous ways in brother cancer. I am called to seek Him in my new beginnings.

(continue on page 3 with Spring, 2008)